2016 Poggio Scalette Capogatto

A blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Petit Verdot, the 2016 Capogatto is a beautifully intense and focused wine with plump cherry and blackberry aromas. The bouquet is delivered like an arrow, shot with pinpoint precision. The wine shows elegance and freshness on the close, a great accompaniment to veal and provolone involtini.

2016 Poggio Scalette Piantonaia

From a one-hectare vineyard, the 2016 Piantonaia is a ripe red wine with syrupy aromas of cherry confit and blackberry preserves. There is more than enough ripe fruit here, as well as notes of tar, resin and scorched earth. You get lots of cherry liqueur and crème de cassis in pure form and some hot vintage sweetness on the close. This Merlot feels too ripe and sweet, but it's still a good picnic wine for some tacos de carnitas with plenty of squeezed lime, salt and cilantro.
