2015 Podere Poggio Scalette Capogatto

The 2015 Capogatto is a dark and thickly textured blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Petit Verdot. That blend of grapes shows extremely well in this warm vintage, and you are treated to directness, fullness and dark fruit intensity as a result. This is a full-bodied red that wraps thickly and smoothly over the palate. It should evolve over the next 10 years or more, or you could drink it right now. Either way will award lots of pleasure and satisfaction.

2015 Podere Poggio Scalette Il Carbonaione

The 2015 Il Carbonaione presents a thick and darkly saturated side of Sangiovese. This expression opens to a dark garnet color with ripe aromas of black cherry, prune and blackberry. This edition delivers extra thickness and richness, yet that mid-weight approach is never compromised. This wine should spread out and gain in volume as it evolves in the bottle. Some 26,000 bottles were made (whereas only 2,000 bottles of the 2015 Capogatto were produced).
